TERMS OF REFERENCE

FOR

NOMINATION COMMITTEE

COURAGE INVESTMENT GROUP LIMITED

(the "Company")

(Revised version adopted on 21 July 2025)

1. Membership

- 1.1 The Nomination Committee (the "Committee") shall be appointed by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of the Company from amongst its members, and shall comprise at least three (3) members, a majority of whom, including the Chairman of the Committee, shall be independent (see Note 1 below) or the Chairman of the Board. The lead Independent Director (if any) should be a member of the Committee. In addition, the Chairman of the Committee should be a Director who is not, or who is not directly associated with, a substantial shareholder (with interest of 5% or more in the voting shares of the Company) (see Note 2 below).
- 1.2 The Chairman of the Committee shall be elected by the Board.
- 1.3 A member who wishes to retire or resign from the Committee shall notify the Board in writing, giving at least one (1) month's notice, unless otherwise agreed by the Committee.
- 1.4 The office of a member shall become vacant upon the member's resignation, retirement, removal or disqualification as a Director of the Company.
- 1.5 Any vacancy in the Committee shall be filled within two (2) months.

- 1.6 The membership of the Committee shall be disclosed annually in the Annual Report of the Company.
- 1.7 The Committee shall have at least one member of a different gender.

Note 1

An "Independent" Director is one who does not have a relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the functions of the Committee.

An "Independent" Director is one who has no relationship with the Company, its related companies (i.e. its subsidiaries, fellow subsidiaries or parent company) or its officers that could interfere, or be reasonably perceived to interfere, with the exercise of the Director's independent business judgment with a view to the best interests of the Company. Examples of relationships which would deem a Director not to be independent, include:-

- (a) a Director being employed by the Company or any of its related companies for the current or any of the past three (3) financial years;*
- (b) a Director who has an immediate family member (i.e. spouse, child, adopted child, step-child, brother, sister and parent) who is, or has been in any of the past three (3) financial years, employed by the Company or any of its related companies as a senior executive officer whose remuneration is determined by the Company's Remuneration Committee;*
- (c) a Director, or an immediate family member, accepting any significant compensation from the Company or any of its related companies for the provision of services for the current or immediate past financial year, other than compensation for board service;*
- (d) a Director, or an immediate family member, being a substantial shareholder of or a partner in (with 5% or more stake), or an executive officer of, or a Director of any for-profit business organisation to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries made, or from which the Company or any of its subsidiaries received, significant payments or material services in the current or immediate past financial year. As a guide, payments (except for transactions involving standard services with published rates or routine and retail transactions and relationships (for instance, credit card or bank or brokerage or mortgage or insurance accounts or transactions), unless special or favourable treatment is accorded) aggregated over any financial year in excess of HK$1,000,000 should generally be deemed significant;*
- (e) a Director who is a 10% shareholder or an immediate family member of a 10% shareholder of the company; or*

- (f) a Director who is or has been directly associated with a 10% shareholder of the company, in the current or immediate past financial year.

The six relationships set out above are not exhaustive, and are examples of situations which would deem a Director to be not independent. In addition to the above relationships, the factors set out in Rule 3.13 of The Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong ("HKEx Rules") shall be taken into account in assessing whether a Non-Executive Director is independent. In the event of any conflict between the above relationships and the factors set out in Rule 3.13 of HKEx Rules, the more onerous provisions shall prevail. Furthermore, the independence of a Director who has served on the Board beyond nine (9) years from the date of his first appointment should be subject to particularly rigorous review.

If the Company wishes, in spite of the existence of one or more of the relationships in the paragraph above or the factors set out in Rule 3.13 of HKEx Rules, to consider the Director as independent, it should disclose in full the nature of the Director's relationship and bear responsibility for explaining why the Director should be considered independent prior to his appointment.

A "10% shareholder" shall refer to a person who has an interest or interests in one or more voting shares in the company and the total votes attached to that share, or those shares, is not less than 10% of the total votes attached to all the voting shares in the company. "Voting shares" exclude treasury shares.

A Director will be considered "directly associated" with a 10% shareholder when the Director is accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the 10% shareholder in relation to the corporate affairs of the corporation in the current or immediate past financial year. A Director will not be considered "directly associated" with a 10% shareholder by reason only of his or her appointment having been proposed by that 10% shareholder.

Note 2

A Director will be considered "directly associated" to a substantial shareholder when the Director is accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the substantial shareholder.

2. Administration

2.1 Meetings

- (a) The Committee shall meet at least once a year and is authorised to meet together at any place for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit and questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held shall have a casting vote.
- (b) The Committee may meet together either in person or by conference telephone, conference television or similar communication equipment or any other form of audio or audio-visual communication by which all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and be heard by all other participants, for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit and the quorum for such teleconference meetings shall be the same as the quorum required by a meeting of the Committee. A resolution passed by such a conference shall, notwithstanding that the members of the Committee are not present together at one (1) place at the time of the conference, be deemed to have been passed at a meeting of the Committee held on the day and at the time at which the conference was held and shall be deemed to have been held at the registered office of the Company, unless otherwise agreed and the members of the Committee participating at the meeting shall be deemed to be present at that meeting.
- (c) The Chairman of the Committee shall preside at each meeting. If the Chairman of the Committee is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting so long as the appointed Chairman is an Independent Director.
- (d) Any member of the Committee shall have full discretion to invite any Director or member of the Management of the Company to attend meetings of the Committee.

- (e) The Committee shall cause minutes of all proceedings of the Committee to be entered in the Minute Book of the Company and those minutes shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting.
- (f) Unless a meeting is required to be convened by law or regulation, a resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Committee (excluding members who abstain or who are disqualified from voting) for the time being shall be valid and effectual as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Committee duly convened and held notwithstanding that such signing may take place at different times or places.
- (g) The notice and agenda of meetings shall be circulated at least seven (7) days before the scheduled meetings to all members of the Board/Committee, unless otherwise agreed by the Committee.
- (h) A member of the Committee who is in any way whether directly or indirectly interested in a contract or proposed contract or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Committee.
- (i) A member of the Committee shall not vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract or arrangement with the Company in which he has directly or indirectly a personal material interest and if he shall do so his vote shall not be counted.
- (j) Each member of the Committee shall abstain from voting on any resolution in respect of the assessment of his performance or re-nomination as Director.

2.2 Quorum

No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Committee unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. For all purposes the quorum shall comprise a majority of the members of the Committee.

3. Duties and Responsibilities

3.1 The duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall be as follows:-

- (a) to develop and maintain a formal and transparent process for the appointment and re-appointment of Directors (including alternate Directors, if applicable) to the Board and all things incidental including without limitation:-
 - (i) to review and make recommendations to the Board on relevant matters relating to all appointments to the Board (including the Company's policy for the nomination of Directors which contain nomination procedures, processes, and criteria to select and recommend candidates for directorship of the Company so that the Board has a balance of skills, experience and diversity of perspective appropriate to the requirements of the Company's business and specific needs) and succession planning for Directors in particular the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer;
 - (ii) to identify individuals suitably qualified to become Board members and select or make recommendations to the Board on the selection of individuals nominated for directorships;
 - (iii) identify and make recommendations to the Board as to the Directors who are to retire by rotation and to be put forward for re-election at each annual general meeting of the Company, having regard to the Directors' contribution and performance (such as their attendance, preparedness, participation and candour), including, if applicable, as Independent Directors;
 - (iv) to re-nominate Directors (including, if applicable, an Independent Director) to the Board, having regard to the Director's contribution and performance (e.g. attendance, preparedness, participation and candour) (See Note 3 below);

- (v) to determine annually whether or not a Director is independent in character and judgment and whether there are relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect, or could appear to affect the Director's judgment, bearing in mind the circumstances set forth in Guidelines of the Singapore Code of Corporate Governance (the "Code") (see Note 1 above), the HKEx Rules and other salient factors;
- (vi) to review the independence of any Director who has served on the Board for more than nine (9) years from the date of his first appointment and the reasons for considering him as independent;
- (vii) at least once every financial year, review (and thereafter, make recommendations to the Board regarding) the Board structure, size, composition and core competencies, taking into account the balance between Executive and Non-Executive Directors and between Independent and Non-Independent Directors, and having regard at all times to the principles of corporate governance, the Code and the HKEx Rules;
- (viii) where a Director serves on multiple boards, the Committee has to decide whether or not such Director is able to and has been adequately carrying out his duties as a Director of the Company taking into consideration the Director's number of listed company board representations and other principal commitments;
- (ix) to recommend to the Board internal guidelines that address the competing time commitments that are faced when Directors serve on multiple boards and determining the maximum number of listed company board representations which any Director may hold;
- (x) where the appointment of an alternate Director to a Director is proposed, determining whether the alternate Director is familiar with the Company's affairs, is appropriately qualified and (in the case of an alternate Director to an independent Director) whether the alternate Director would similarly qualify as an Independent Director, and providing its views to the Board in relation thereto for the Board's consideration;

- (xi) to prepare a description of the process for the selection and appointment of new Directors to the Board, including disclosure on the search and nomination process;
 - (xii) to review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge and experience) of the Board on a regular basis and at least annually and make recommendations to the Board regarding any proposed changes; and
 - (xiii) to prepare an annual report comprising key information regarding the Directors. (see Note 4 below).
- (b) to review the Board and workforce diversity policy from time to time;
 - (c) to assess the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the contribution by each Director to the effectiveness of the Board (see Notes 5 and 6 below);
 - (d) to decide how the performance of the Board may be evaluated and develop a process for evaluation of the performance of the Board, its Board Committees and Directors by proposing objective performance criteria (see Note 7 below). The Chairman should act on the results of the performance evaluation, and where appropriate, propose new members to be appointed to the Board or seek the resignation of Directors, in consultation with the Committee;
 - (e) to review training and professional development programs for the Board;
 - (f) to report to the Board its findings from time to time on matters arising and requiring the attention of the Committee; and
 - (g) to undertake such other reviews, projects, functions, duties and responsibilities as may be requested by the Board.

Note 3

As a principle of good corporate governance, all Directors should be required to submit themselves for re-nomination and re-election at regular intervals and at least every three (3) years.

Note 4

Key information shall include academic and professional qualifications, shareholding in the Company and its subsidiaries, board committees served on (as a member or chairman), date of first appointment as a Director, date of last re-election as a Director, directorships or chairmanships both present and those held over the preceding three (3) years in other listed companies and other major appointments. In addition, the Company's annual disclosure on corporate governance should indicate which Directors are executive, non-executive or considered by the Committee to be independent. The names of the Directors submitted for election or re-election should also be accompanied by such details and information to enable shareholders to make informed decisions.

Note 5

The assessment process should be disclosed annually in the annual report.

Note 6

Individual evaluation should aim to assess whether each Director continues to contribute effectively and demonstrate commitment to the role (including commitment of time for Board and committee meetings, and any other duties).

Note 7

Such performance criteria, which allow for comparison with its industry peers, should be approved by the Board and address how the Board has enhanced long-term shareholders' value. These performance criteria should not be changed from year to year, and where circumstances deem it necessary for any of the criteria to be changed, the onus should be on the Board to justify this decision.

In addition to any relevant performance criteria which the Board may propose, the performance evaluation should also consider the Company's share price performance over a five-year period vis-à-vis the Singapore Straits Times Index and a benchmark index of its industry peers. Other performance criteria that may be used include return on assets ("ROA"), return on equity ("ROE"), return on investment ("ROI") and economic value added ("EVA") over a long-term period.

4. Reporting Procedure

- 4.1 The minutes of all meetings of the Committee shall be circulated to all members of the Board.
